HONITON: Councillor

John Zarczynski was elected Deputy Mayor.

WEST HILL: Author
Philip Agar has published his latest novel, part au-

tion about a little boy challenged by the reality of war.

Quotes of the week...

“THERE are five stretches of the road through to Honiton where there is currently a single carriageway rather than a dual - dualling those stretches will bring a lot of improvements for the road. The money is there and we are expecting a statement in the autumn with some actual cash and proposals for work to start. The road provides an important link for Honiton and it also feeds the south of Devon. There may have to be compromises and we have to be sure the road will be dualled over the Blackdown Hills. But I know people are very supportive of this work and I am very keen to get this finished as quickly as possible”

Local gymnasts in British schools final

FOLLOWING their success at The Gryphon Leisure

elled to Fenton Manor, Stoke-on-Trent, to compete in the British Schools Gymnastic Finals.

The South West, as a region, was very successful throughout the day and the Honiton gymnasts certainly played a very big part in that success.

Ashley was called up as a late replacement in the U19 Boys Tumbling. Despite very little time to practice, Ashley gave an excellent performance to win the first medal of the day achieving third place.

Better service on the buses

TOURISTS and locals are set to benefit from more reliable bus travel between Axminster and Bridport and beyond, it has been claimed.

But buses will only go as far as Dorchester and the last buses in and out of Axminster are an hour earlier than was the case with the previous timetable.

Bus operator First has introduced a new timetable, the main difference being much improved Sunday services. It is also hoped the changes will make life easier for passengers using the bus to connect with trains at Axminster (and Dorchester).

Under the previous timetable, particularly during summer, delays were frequent and made the bus an unreliable option for connecting train passengers.

The new timetable came into effect on Sunday May 25th and is valid up to and including Saturday September 27th. Service 31 has been renamed X31 and is based on a Monday to Sunday timetable as opposed to the previous concept of a Monday to Saturday one plus a separate Sunday timetable.

The major difference is the fact that Sunday services will, in effect, become hourly and earlier.

COLYTON

Parish roads concern

COLYTON parish councillors have complained that Devon County Council is not taking enough action on highways issues in the town due to budget constraints.

At a recent Colyton Parish Council meeting, members said that they were constantly told that the county council did not have enough funds to repair and improve safety on roads, after a number of highways-related issues were raised by members of the public.

Problems ranging from potholes and poor road surfaces to overgrown grass verges and dangerous parking were raised by members of the public attending the meeting, and in emails and letters received beforehand.

From the editor's chair Now will they get it...?

BEFORE you read this let me make it very clear: "I DID NOT VOTE UKIP". But we have just witnessed the biggest sea change in the political map of this country for a hundred years and more – and if the main political parties don't take notice of UKIP after last week's European elections they are heading for oblivion.

I'm a disillusioned Tory and I know many Conservatives who feel as I do and decided to vote for UKIP just to give David Cameron a kick up the backside. They say they will return to the Tory fold at next year's General Election.

I usually steer clear of national politics in this column (it's the easiest way of losing readers) but on this occasion the impact of what happened through the ballot box persuaded me not to ignore Nigel Farage's elevation to a political leader who has to be taken seriously.

An orchestrated campaign by the national Press and main political parties to discredit Farage and his band of "fruitcakes, loonies and closet racists", as David Cameron once described them, backfired spectacularly. The more they lampooned them, the more their vote went up.

Farage now claims with some justification that UKIP is the third major political force in British politics, though I doubt he will hang on to that claim at the General Election when they won't have the advantage of proportional representation to assist their cause.

They are not, and will never be, a party capable of forming a Government but they will inflict greater influence in the years to come.

In East Devon UKIP, incredibly, amassed 14,425 votes, pushing the Tories into second place with (13,647), followed by the Greens (4,975), Labour (3,623) and the Lib Dems, so strong on the ground in these parts, (3,085).

The Lib Dems, of course, are claiming they have suffered so badly by being in Government, with their long serving MEP Graham Watson losing his seat, and taking the brunt of the anti-Euro vote.

Whenever a major party takes a kicking they always come back with the retort: "We will listen and change". They rarely do.

We often say of politicians "they just don't get it", but am I being blissfully naive in thinking this might just be the watershed in British politics that is long overdue; the one seismic event that redraws the political map for a fairer and more balanced society? Should we be thanking Nigel Farage rather than demonising him?

SEATON

Motion to block more apartments

ANOTHER full house in expected at Seaton Town Hall tonight (Tuesday) when the town council meet to discuss the plan by McCarthy & Stone to build 43 retirement apartments on the Seaton regeneration site.

In the first of their new schedule of meetings which sees the council move away from holding their full council meeting on the second Tuesday of every month, tonight's meeting has been switched to the main hall because a large crowd of residents are expected to attend.

There is growing dissatisfaction in the town over the plan to build the retirement apartments on the site adjacent to Tesco rather than the expected 100-room hotel, as originally planned.

One councillor is expected to claim that Seaton has been "stitched up" by East Devon District Council, the planning authority, and Tesco over broken promises for the development of the regeneration site.

Two hundred houses are also planned for the site but the town council was up in arms when it was revealed that none of these would be affordable homes.

Whilst there is an acceptance that the proposed Jurassic Coast Centre, also planned for the site, will bring more people into the town, some traders are still sceptical about the siting of such a facility.

One motion that will go before tonight's meeting will come from district councillor and former mayor Peter Burrows, who will move: "This council inform East Devon District Council that Seaton wishes to see a growing vibrant town with an opportunity for business to expand. This will not be achieved if we continue to allow more homes, specifically for older people, being built."

HONITON

Cash is available for A303 upgrade

HONITON MP Neil Parish has reassured local traders and commuters that money will be made available to fund improvements to the A303/A30 – and there are further plans in the pipeline to improve transport links between Honiton and the rest of the country.

Speaking at a meeting of Honiton Chamber of Commerce recently, Mr Parish said he was expecting Government cash to be set aside for the project in the autumn of this year with proposals made for the work to start.

Calls for the frequently congested road to be upgraded go back more than 20 years – and campaigners hope to see sections of the road converted from single to dual carriageways as part of the work.

Environmental groups have protested that the dualing of the road will spoil the natural beauty of the area, and funding constraints have contributed to progress stalling.

But Mr Parish, who recently travelled the length of the road with Transport Minister Robert Goodwill MP to point out the problems, said he was "very keen" to start the work.

He said: "The money is there and we are expecting a statement in the autumn with some actual cash and proposals for work to start. The road provides an important link for Honiton and it also feeds the south of Devon."

OTTERY ST MARY County committed to children's centres

PARENTS of young children in Ottery St Mary have been assured that Devon County Council is "absolutely committed" to children's centres and will not be "selling off" buildings, following a review into its provision of services.

The county authority announced last month that it would be reviewing its approach to children's centres, with many buildings set to be closed and services targeted at families in the most deprived areas.

Ottery's centre, which currently provides family support services and play sessions for children under five, is among those outlined for closure, with up to 100 families set to be affected by the changes.

And at a consultation event held in Ottery this week, parents were given the opportunity to question county council bosses on the changes.

Speaking at the event, Councillor James McInnes, Devon County Council cabinet member with responsibility for children and young people's services, said: "I can assure parents in Ottery that we are absolutely committed to children's centres and any change in this part of Devon would be two years away."

"The council is facing financial difficulties and every area is having to be looked at, but we are in a unique position because the proposals will allow us to keep front line facilities open for children aged 0-5."

SIDMOUTH

Second raid on shop

RAIDERS made off with thousands of pounds worth of valuables, following a burglary at a Sidmouth china shop this week – the second time in a month the store has been targeted.

Goviers of Sidmouth was hit by balaclava-clad burglars again in the early hours of Wednesday morning, when the offenders broke in through a boarded up door and stole valuable items of china and porcelain.

The incident follows a previous burglary at the High Street shop earlier this month, when raiders swiped a quantity of expensive bowls and vases.

The major difference is the fact that Sunday services will, in effect, become hourly and earlier.

For example, the first Sunday bus out of Axminster will leave at 9.15am, which is almost two hours earlier than under the previous timetable.

First Dorset general manager Simon Newport said: "The change does mean the X31 timetable will be more reliable so that it can always meet trains at Dorchester South and Axminster stations.

"It has also been linked with Service X53 so that buses will be provided every half an hour from Bridport to Lyme Regis, making it the best ever level of service along this section of the coast.

"This meets the increasing demands for travel from local customers and tourists alike."

About severing Weymouth from the route, he said: "The change to Service X31 has been made in order to maintain its viability following the withdrawal of financial support from Dorset County Council three years ago.

"We did make great efforts to increase the number of people travelling and improve the fares, but unfortunately, the section between Weymouth and Dorchester has not been used sufficiently to enable us to continue running this part of the service.

"Customers can however use Service 10 between Weymouth and Dorchester, which runs every quarter of an hour during the day and hourly in the evening, with buses every half an hour on Sundays."

■ BEDTIME: Douglas Hull and an assortment of night dresses

Night attire theme at the museum for new season

"AND So To Bed With The Down Family" is the name of Axminster Museum's special exhibition for the season.

After last year's elegant dresses theme, the 2014 season features night dresses through seven generations.

Axminster Museum committee member Douglas Hull has named mannequins after members of the Down family from the late 1800s through to the present day, including his own great, great grandfather Francis William Down.

Mr Hull said: "We thought, let's use a local family - and every other person in Axminster is related to a Down."

New for the season is also an electric model of Weycroft Mill.

Opening hours are: Tuesdays-Fridays 11am-4pm, Saturdays 11am-2pm.

Entry is free, but donations are gratefully received.

Councillor fails in bid to get deputy mayor post

AXMINSTER town councillor Paul Hayward failed in a bid to oust the council's longest serving member, Douglas Hull, from the deputy mayorship - after nominating himself.

The bid failed, however, after members voted 8-4 in favour of Councillor Hull, who is celebrating 50 years in local government.

Axminster Town Council met on Monday May 12th and there was no surprise when councillors agreed that Mayor Jeremy Walden should carry on for a second year, as is tradition.

There were no other nominations and the decision was unanimous.

Councillor Walden's first duty during his second term was to oversee the appointment of deputy mayor.

Councillor Sue Spiller proposed that Councillor Douglas Hull should continue for another year, seconded by Councillor Brian Watson.

But Councillor Paul Hayward nominated himself, seconded by Councillor Mervyn Symes.

There was confusion for a while as nobody could say for sure if it was allowed to nominate yourself.

It was eventually decided that Councillors Hull and Hayward should go head-to-head in a ballot and voting slips were subsequently issued, with Councillor Hull triumphing 8-4.

The seeds of controversy were sown during a town council debate in June last year during which Councillor Symes attempted to reform the mayoral selection process.

At the time, Councillor Symes, a former mayor, told the town council that he had been asked by residents how

Due to a production error last week a part of this report was omitted so we have reproduced it again in this week's edition.

the process worked, and had replied: "By pecking order" (time served on the council).

It was then explained that individual councillors could nominate a fellow councillor for the posts of mayor or deputy mayor - but a councillor could not nominate himself/herself.

Once the nominations were in, there was a vote among councillors if there was more than one candidate for the respective posts.

Some councillors felt the system made it difficult for newer or younger members to have a chance of claiming any of the posts.

Councillor Hayward, who is serving his first term on the council, said at the time: "The process seems a bit odd, it seems to be done behind the scenes outside of the town council."

At that meeting Councillor John Jeffery told councillor Hayward: "The system works, why upset it?"

"We will probably say to you in 12 months, you have been here long enough, how would you feel being deputy mayor?"

It was subsequently decided to keep the current system and minutes from the meeting stated: "The general consensus of opinion was that the process was well-established and perfectly transparent."

Help needed to combat invasive plants

VOLUNTEERS are sought to combat the spread of Himalayan balsam, Japanese knotweed and giant hogweed

Natural England's Himalayan Balsam Project 2014, aka Axe Invasives, would like help in June, July and August 2014.

Project spokesperson Louise Woolley said: "The project takes people to beautiful areas along the riverside where wildlife is still abundant for now and enables you to explore places not usually accessible to the public.

"The work is not heavy and requires no tools, just gloves and wellies and is a fun way to maintain fitness.

"This Natural England project has been funded by Defra through the Water Framework Directive funding in order to put a stop to the invasion of Himalayan balsam as it affects everybody due the major effects that the increase in the plant causes.

"The area encompasses Devon, Dorset and Somerset with Seaton to the south, Honiton to the west, Chard to the north and Beaminster to the east.

"We are also tackling Japanese knotweed and Giant hogweed with the help of contractors and would appreciate any information on infestations of these two plants in the Axe catchment."

For further details, call Louise Woolley 01395 512536 or 07905418460, email Axeinvasives@outlook.com or contact @Axe Invasives on Facebook or Twitter.

Spring has sprung for Axe Valley Peddallers

■ BREAK TIME: Riders enjoying a well-earned rest among the spring bluebells

MEMBERS of Axe Valley Pedallers celebrated the arrival of spring with two rides to see the bluebells.

Nineteen riders were out in the lanes of Dorset on Sunday, May 11th, taking a circuitous route from Axminster along the Stop Line Way, then via Waggs Plot, Tilworth and Dodpen Hill before eventually dropping to sea level at Charmouth.

Coffee and cakes were enjoyed at the beach café in Charmouth before tackling the inevitable climb back out to Wootton Fitzpaine and the challenging ascent from Monkton Wyld to Raymonds Hill, where the group split up, somewhat tired, to return home.

Peddallers were also out on the previous Wednesday on a short easy ride to Blackbury Camp.

Details of future Wednesday and Sunday rides are available online at Axevalleypeddallers.org.uk and on Facebook.

News briefs

Cars vandalised in Widepost Lane

TWO cars have been vandalised when parked in Widepost Lane, Axminster.

The first report relates to a blue Renault at some point between 12 noon on Saturday, May 10th and 6.30am on Thursday, May 15th.

A police spokesperson said: "The offside front door was scratched on two separate occasions, damaging the paintwork."

The second report involves a black Citroen C5, which was scratched to the offside rear door and boot area, at some point between 5pm on Wednesday, May 14th and 2pm Thursday, May 15th.

Anyone with information is asked to call police on 101.

The crime references are 072862/14 and 073025/14 respectively.

Theft of signs

MAGNETIC advertisement boards have been stolen during a break-in in Axminster.

Someone broke into a vehicle parked in Foxhill on Wednesday, May 14th or Thursday, May 15th.

Police gave no further description of the boards or the vehicle, but anyone who witnessed something suspicious in the area that might be connected with the theft is asked to call police on 101. The crime reference number is CR/074175/14.

Carnival Queen contest on again

AXMINSTER Carnival has confirmed it will reintroduce a queen, two princesses and a prince for this year's showpiece on Saturday September 20th.

Candidates are invited for judging in the Guildhall on Monday July 7th.

Carnival spokesperson Ron Jones stressed that the judging will not be made by committee members, but by the members of the public who come out to play carnival bingo that evening.

As an incentive, the carnival committee has agreed that the interval game will be £100.

Axminster hasn't had a formal carnival queen since 2002 when Jessica Chapple had the role.

But a selection of former carnival queens took command of a float in 2012 and last year saw a royal family consisting of former carnival queens' children.

The ambition was to have a full-blown carnival queen competition in 2014, which has now been confirmed.

The queen has to be in the 12-17 years age bracket, the prince five to eight years and the princesses either five to eight years or nine to 12 years.

Candidates must register with former carnival queen Elaine Voisey (1991 and 1992) on 07968 088 581 before June 30th.

Mr Jones invited would-be candidates to "have a go."

Councillor stands down

AXMINSTER town councillors have praised a former colleague for his dedication over a 20-year period.

When Axminster Town Council met on Monday May 12th, it was announced that Chris Scott had resigned the week before.

It was reported that Mr Scott is moving to Somerset, and mayor Jeremy Walden said: "We owe a great debt of gratitude to councillor Scott and we wish him well in his move."

Mr Scott, who chaired the town council planning committee, was not present at the meeting.

A new chairman will be appointed by the committee in due course.

The town council has informed the returning officer at East Devon District Council.

If 10 electors come forward to demand a by-election, one will be held.

If not, Axminster Town Council will seek candidates for co-option.

■ INDUSTRY EXPERTS: Jane Dean, Heather Tetley, Susan Lady Stern and Dr John Church

Carpet experts in day long symposium

THOSE attending Axminster Heritage's carpet symposium were treated to a day of two halves – in the morning and the present day in the afternoon.

Attendees included the Master of the Worshipful Company of Woolmen, representatives of other livery companies and members of The National Trust.

The symposium was held on Friday, May 9th, starting in Thomas Whitty House.

Dr John Church, Axminster Heritage chairman, said: "Susan Lady Stern suggested this some months ago. She is now the expert on original Axminster carpets and she gave a fascinating paper on Thomas Whitty carpets in the time of the great architect Robert Adam, pointing out how he worked with Whitty so that the design of his plasterwork ceilings was replicated in the carpet much like a mirror image."

"Heather Tetley, senior carpet conservator, followed up this with a talk on cleaning and repairing these 18 century carpets, which are now considered to be wonderful works of art."

"She recently conserved the two Axminster carpets from Dumphries House, (made here in 1759 only a few years after Whitty started his manufactory)."

The final morning lecture was given by spinner, weaver and dyer Jane Dean, of The Worshipful Company of Dyers.

She talked about vegetable dyes and the source for the varied colours, also describing how to extract the blue from woad, yellow from weld and red from madder – and, how even today, some dyers use stale urine as a mordant.

Dr Church added: "After lunch Axminster Carpets arranged an illustrated talk by Gary Bridge, who compared the old methods of designing on squared paper with the use of computer both for the design and the selection of colours at the loom when it is programmed by a disc."

"The afternoon ended with a conducted tour around the factory, which was led with great enthusiasm and knowledge by Josh Dutfield."

Rejuvenated traders in upbeat mood at their annual meeting

AXMINSTER Chamber of Commerce has held an upbeat and well-attended annual general meeting.

About 30 people attended, which is the best AGM attendance for several years, reflecting a surge in membership.

Chairman Lisa Lyman reported that membership had increased by about 50 per cent compared to last year, now standing at 47 with more to come.

Since taking charge less than a year ago, Mrs Lyman has changed the structure of the chamber, severed its ties with the tourist information centre but also opened up the chamber to non-business people provided they are "passionate" about the town.

New initiatives have been announced, including a forthcoming seasonal artisan market.

The first one will be held in Trinity Square on Saturday, June 28th and local food producers, craftspersons and artisans looking for an outlet to sell your goods are asked to contact the chamber.

The AGM was held at Cloakham Lawn Sports Centre and the agenda was concluded by Pulman's View editor Philip Evans, who gave a short presentation of the forthcoming Showcasing Axminster & Food Festival.

The two-day event will be staged in and outside Axminster Guildhall on Thursday September 18th and Friday September 19th.

The View From also sponsored a barbecue for members after the meeting.

◆For details, or to book a pitch at the artisan market, email business@axminster.org or call 07772 194421.

A pitch costs £15, and all profit will be given to local charities

■ ROWING SURGERY: Dr McKenna and Mr Wakley (in back row middle with medals) meet the support crew after the race

Canoe marathon raises funds for ARC

A BUMP on the head and involuntary bath couldn't stop an Axminster-based GP and his paddling partner from setting a personal record at the Devises to Westminster International Canoe Marathon during Easter.

Team Dr Barry McKenna and Gary Wakley took part in the race for the sixth consecutive time and finished in 22 hours and two minutes – beating their previous best of 22 hours and eight minutes.

Dr McKenna uses the race as a major fundraiser for Axminster-based counselling service ARC, of which he is the chairman.

Fundraising from this year's raise currently stands somewhere between £1,500 and £2,000, and Dr McKenna said: "The support has been absolutely brilliant, both in terms of fundraising and the support crew during the race."

He credits relatively warm weather during the race and an increased focus on paddling technique during preparations for the fast time.

But things didn't go too well about seven hours into the race. Sporting a bruised forehead, he said: "You duck under low bridges but I mistimed one coming up and got knocked into the water. Stupid me."

A rudder also had to be repaired along the way after another mishap.

The race has been held annually during Easter week-end since 1948, and has 77 portages (where vessels are carried around an obstacle in water or overland between waterways) along its 125 miles.

ARC was formed in 2007 by psychotherapist Catherine Davies, and is an independent body but integrated with the NHS mental health structure and referrals are made through Axminster Medical Practice.

Race sponsorship can still be made by leaving a sealed envelope labelled 'canoe challenge' at the surgery or ARC shop.

Donations can also be made online at arcaxminster.org

Astronomy talk at Mariners' Hall

AN INTRIGUING talk on astronomy and Stonehenge will be held at the Mariners' Hall on Thursday (May 29th).

The talk, which will be given by Mike Green, will follow the annual meeting of the Beer Village Heritage Centre and anyone is welcome to come along.

The Beer Heritage Centre recently held a successful coffee morning at the Mariners' Hall and raised £138 plus a further £37 from donations the following day during the Craft Fayre.

"Firstly a very big thank you to everyone who helped to make the coffee morning so successful," said spokeswoman Norah Jagers.

"We had a lot of visitors who enjoyed seeing Trevor Wood's research on houses in the village as well as the old pictures which Carol and Mike (Green) had on show.

"The Scouts collected several interesting stories for their book and Richard Scott and Peter Anderson were able to update people on their plans for the 2014 commemorative activities.

"The morning was financially successful too as we made a profit of £138 which will go towards the electricity bill."

Mrs Jagers confirmed that the next guided walk, including a geology talk and guided tour of the National Trust Old Mill, will be held on Saturday, June 7th, starting at Branscombe Village Hall and finishing at the Beer Heritage Centre.

To register go onto the website at www.beervillageheritage.org.uk

Lifeboat charity collectors in town

VOLUNTEERS from the Seaton, Beer & District Royal National Lifeboat Institution were out in force in Seaton over the weekend as part of Tesco's nation-wide charity collection days.

"We were collecting outside Tesco in Seaton on Friday, Saturday and Sunday," said Wendy Cummins, who is secretary of the local branch.

"While it is a national collection all the money we raise will be spent locally."

Helping Wendy who lives in Beer, in Friday's lunchtime shift was Jill Moorcraft from Seaton.

Crime round-up

SEVEN crimes have been committed during the first 11 days of May in Seaton, town councillors have been informed.

In a report to Seaton Town Council, which is set to meet tonight (Tue), PC Steve Spearlett wrote there had been three thefts, one incident of criminal damage, one offence under the Communications Act and one breach of a non-molestation order.

In addition, a peregrine falcon died after having been shot and found on West Walk.

The offence under the Communications Act and the breach of a non-molestation order both relate to domestic incidents.

No pantomime in Beer next year

AT THE recent annual general meeting of Beer Panto People it was decided that there will be a change of format for next year's production.

Because the group of performers is currently quite small it was thought it would be better to stage a one night variety show with a ploughman's supper rather than a panto spread over several days.

This will hopefully take place one evening in January 2015 in the Mariner's Hall.

Anyone interested in joining the group would be very welcome and for further information please contact secretary Christine Perkins on 01297 22056.

Baking competition

A BISCUIT-baking competition is being held at Branscombe Village Hall on Sunday (June 1st) with Pam Corbin, author of the River Cottage's cakes and preserves handbooks, judging the entries.

For further details contact Karen Williams on 01297 680339.

Fundraiser success

A TOTAL of £2,800 was raised for Devon Air Ambulance at the recent Branscombe Art Show held in the village hall.

"It was a great success," said spokesman Gary Rivers.

Jurassic jam night

JURASSIC Folk's popular jam night will be held at the Dolphin Hotel tomorrow (Wednesday, June 28th) from 8pm and performers of all abilities are welcome to come along.

Lions gift new books to primary school

SEATON and District Lions have donated £300 towards the cost of purchasing new reading books for Seaton Primary School.

Seaton & District Lions recently received a letter from Kay McFarlane, a Year Six teacher and the Head of Teaching and Learning at Seaton Primary School, asking for a donation towards the cost of purchasing a new reading scheme and books for the school.

The brand new reading scheme is motivating and exciting, designed to raise achievement levels significantly in reading, comprehension and writing.

Two of the Seaton Lions Club members visited the school to handover the cheque.

Now let's go for gold

URSULA Makepeace has made a passionate plea to the residents of Beer to help the village win gold in the 2014 Britain in Bloom competition.

The chairwoman of the Beer Horticultural Society, who is also a parish councillor, has sent an open letter to villagers asking for their support to make sure Beer looks its best when the competition judges arrive on July 2nd.

"They (the judges) are very critical and want to see Beer in pristine condition," said Mrs Makepeace.

"It would be very helpful if you could tidy up and remove all weeds outside your patch, i.e. front garden or patio and your part of the pavement."

"Kevin (Hale) is ultimately responsible for keeping the area of the route weed-free but it would be wonderful if you assist him. The rest of the village and I would also be very grateful."

by Kevin Fahey

The judges will spend almost three hours in Beer beginning their inspection at 10am at Pecorama before taking in Beer Church of England Primary School.

They will then continue down Causeway towards the Alms Houses before heading into the centre of the village and onto the seafront for a visit to the Fine Foundation Centre and Charlie's Yard.

The inspection tour will end at the Dolphin Hotel for a presentation and the chance to meet members of the community and Beer Horticultural Society.

Last year Beer was awarded a Silver Gilt Certificate by the Britain in Bloom organisers, a decision that Mrs Makepeace criticised and felt did not reflect the efforts made by people in the village.

For a while she was ready to quit the competition but, after meeting the judges and with the support of fellow parish councillors and members of the public, decided to give it one more go in 2014.

Since then she and her team have been busy in the village and on Thursday morning (May 29th) will be planting all the containers in Fore Street.

Tractor run pulls in the Bank Holiday crowds

By Francesca Evans
francesca@pemedi.co.uk

THE annual Colyton Tractor Run attracted a large crowd on Bank Holiday Monday, who cheered and clapped as the vintage vehicles set off on their trip around the East Devon countryside.

The tractor run left from the Peace Memorial Playing Field, officially started by Colyton town crier Derek Wenn, and finished at Millers Farm Shop in Kilminster for lunch.

Money raised at this year's run will be donated to the Mardon House Neurological Rehabilitation Centre in Exeter. It was not known how much was raised at the time of going to press - full details and more photos in next week's Pulman's View.

Club's past president entertains artists

ROBERT Julier, past president of Axminster Art Society, gave members a fascinating and informative demonstration of the development of new approaches to painting and the development of "isms".

It started with Paul Cezanne who used blocks of colour to build up his paintings such as "Mont Sainte-Victoire" (1902).

This founded the school of impressionism. Pablo Picasso, Georges Brague and many others then further deconstructed and fragmented the painted image, giving rise to cubism. Later subjects were viewed from different angles and each image was integrated into one picture.

Next came the portrayal of movement such as that seen in "Nude Descending a Staircase" by Marcel Duchamp.

In the pre-war years technology was making its mark on lifestyle, giving rise to dynamic paintings such as "Speeding Auto" by Giacomo Balta.

Cubism remained a basis to these paintings but movement had no vertical lines. Swirling movement was portrayed by vorticism. Colours and shapes swirled around the paintings as can be seen in "Homage to Bleriot" by Robert Delaunay (1914).

With the outbreak of World War One artists' work became more menacing and darker in colour. Futurism, with its irony, disgust and protest mocked jingoism. It was aggressive, idealistic and often brutal in shape and texture, promoting a new cosmopolitan world to replace the old romanticism. The leading protagonist was Filippo Tommaso Marinetti who championed the avant-garde which was challenging but vague. All "isms" fade but most continue to contribute to art as artists strive to depict man, nature and the universe.

Axminster Art Society's recent spring exhibition at Trinity House was another success and thanks go to judges Lisa Lyman from Apple Tree Galleries and Mark Hankey from Trinity House.

Visitors to the show were impressed by the range of subjects chosen and the varied skills displayed by the members. The picture voted as The People's Favourite was Kathryn Hardings "Love in a Mist". Other award winning pictures may be seen on the society's website at www.axminster-art-society.org.uk

■ MORE than £100 was made a recent fundraiser for Stockland and Yarcombe Pre-School. The fundraiser was held at the end of April with an Easter theme in Stockland Victory Hall, in conjunction with Stockland Country Market. Pre-school chairman Sarah Thompson said: "The event was a huge success. The weather was kind to us and it was great to see so many children taking part and enjoying the day and, of course, the country market. We've raised a fabulous total of over £100, which will go towards the much-needed refurbishment of the pre-school room. Thank you to everyone who came along and supported us."

News briefs

Neighbourhood plan for Stockland

STOCKLAND parish residents are being invited to take part in the creation of a neighbourhood plan, which will give the community more of a say about development in the local area.

Neighbourhood plans relate to the use and development of land and associated social, economic and environmental issues. It could deal with a wide range of issues, such as housing, employment, heritage and transport.

Stockland Parish Council clerk Cathy Gardner said: "Stockland parish is about to start a neighbourhood plan. There are events coming up and you will also be getting a survey form through your door in due course. Please use your voice and have your say."

An exhibition on the plan will be held from June 6th to 8th in Victory Hall, Stockland (Friday 2pm to 8pm; Saturday 10am to 6pm; Sunday 10am to 12noon and 2pm to 4pm).

West Country snaps at history talk

RENNOWN local historian and Dartmoor guide, Tony Burges, entertained members and visitors at the Axe Valley Heritage Association's final spring talk with an illustrated talk called "West Country Snippets".

Tony showed slides of scenes, features and curiosities, each with a tale to tell from the Axe Valley as well as Beer, Branscombe and Salcombe Regis to the county's extremities at Lynmouth, Exmoor and Dartmoor. A vote of thanks was given by talks secretary.

Further talks will be given in the autumn and information on these, plus how to join the association and Friends of Seaton Museum, can be obtained by contacting Alan Nicholas on 01297 792212.

More retirement homes will add pressure to infrastructure

■ I AM intrigued by the whinging of council members over the loss of affordable housing and a hotel to Seaton.

When the land was first bought from the holiday camp, a survey was done and the results published in the Mid Week Herald. The results were that no affordable housing could ever be built due to the enormous costs of building on a flood plain. If that was known all those years ago, what is the hand wringing all about now?

The truth is that East Devon District Council was determined to get Tesco into Seaton in case they flexed their muscles Sidmouth way and failed completely to look beyond that. Now they are wondering why we have lost our hotel as well, when everybody knows that Macarthy and Stone are retirement home specialists.

We certainly need another few blocks of these dwellings, nothing like adding to the problems we have already got with infrastructure in the town. We could be looking at a month's wait for a GP appointment at the least.

Yes, good old EDDC has done it again and nobody seems to be able to stop their clangors. When I was growing up, my father said to me that people who were well-educated and bright would seek employment in the private sector and all the rest would be public servants. Nothing changes I see.

MRS W.S. COOKE,
Seaton

Seaton becoming a twilight town

■ I READ your front page article about the Harbour Road development in Seaton (May 20th) and sighed... whilst it is good to have something done on this piece of land surely an hotel would have been much more beneficial to the town, bringing visitors as well as providing much needed local employment.

I appreciate older people need somewhere to live but what about the younger local people who want to get on the property ladder?

I do love living in Seaton but it is in danger of becoming a twilight town and already has a poor cousin reputation with its neighbours Sidmouth and Lyme Regis. In fact, when I said I was moving here someone said 'Oh, I went to Seaton but it was shut'.

Let's re-open this lovely town for business!

RUTH COCKS,
Seaton

Seaton needs an injection of life

■ AS a resident of Seaton since only October 2013 and being a fit and able male of 57 years of age I am appalled to learn of plans to build a complex to hold 43 "retirement" flats for the nearly departed (targeted, as speculators say, for the 78 year olds) as part of the seafront regeneration.

I moved to Seaton with my partner because we were impressed with what we understood was taking place regarding the regeneration of the town to bring life and enterprise to, what we were told by people who had visited, was "God's waiting room".

This statement I must disagree with, even if it does at times seem that beige is the in colour!

What Seaton needs, and I'm sure a huge amount of the populous would agree, is an injection of life in the seafront regeneration scheme, i.e. a hotel to accommodate visitors when visiting the tramway, beach, cafes, shops, etc. Therefore bringing employment to the area.

Please don't get me wrong, I am not into ageism and know I will be old one day, but Seaton should not be a town where the majority are very old people.

E. BOWMAN
Seaton

Town needs hotel for new visitor centre

■ REGARDING the proposal of the building of housing for retired people on the old holiday camp site in Seaton, we are already surrounded with old people's homes and, with the building of the Jurassic Coast Centre, what we need is the original plan to build a hotel on the site.

The town needs this hotel so visitors have somewhere to stay and not just make a flying visit to the centre, which won't bring much needed income to the town.

Might I suggest that East Devon District Council turn down this proposal? So come on Seatonians, back us up on this. As an 83-year-old, I know what I'm talking about - save our town!

Stop Line Way route still progressing

■ AGAIN, John Potter (Pulman's View letters, May 20th) has got his facts wrong.

The statement in the May 6th edition of View From stated that a potential cycle route from Sidmouth to Feniton could generate £600,000 of annual income from tourism in the area. The cost would be £1.4million plus, and is very much a long term project!

The current status of the Colyford Stop Line Way as announced a month or so ago is that the £300,000 promised by the Department of Transport has been diverted to the last winter flood relief funds for areas such as the Somerset Levels. Surely Mr Potter does not begrudge assistance to those desperate people in Somerset and beyond.

Action is now in hand to raise new funds from other sources (Europe being one), and work is still proceeding to hopefully gain planning approval in 2014.

Axminster Chamber —Artisans Market—

Are you a local food producer, craftsperson or artisan looking for an outlet to sell your goods?

Axminster Chamber of Commerce is proud to announce that they will be holding a Seasonal Artisan Market on the 4th Saturday of every month beginning 28th June in Trinity Square, Axminster.

A pitch costs £15, and all profit will be given to local charities.

For the June Market the beneficiary will be the Minster Church re-ordering.

For details, or to book a pitch, please email businessdevelopment@axminster.org or alternatively contact us on

07772 194421

FIRST, word from Geoffrey Walsh, a member of the Minster Team, Axminster:

My earliest memories of church are being in the pew alongside Mum and Dad playing with my Dinky car up and down the book shelf.

I would have been four or five-years-old and remember the congregation standing reciting the words of the Creed.

I knew what they were saying but I wasn't able to recite it as quickly as them. I had the same feeling when they said the Lord's Prayer. I didn't want them to slow down; I wanted to be as good and as quick as all the grown-ups.

Children absorb all that is around them, they worship God in the only way they know how. They want to be like the grown-ups but don't yet have the life experiences. Let's always be there to help them grow.

As Jesus said, "Let the children come to me, don't hinder them, for the kingdom of God belong to such as these."

I am just back from the Middle East where the Anglican presence exists in the form of the Diocese of Cyprus and the Middle East, and is the annual source of our Palm Crosses each Lent – grown, made and sent to us.

Our payments go to support the church there. Women priests from UK already serve there. The local ancient churches there, separate from the Diocese mentioned, are very ancient.

Their congregations are often small but with coloured portraits covering 100 per cent of the interior. One guide had a powerful torch to display every saint.

Many of the Deanery Synods in Exeter Diocese have in the past few days cast their votes regarding the policy for Women Bishops, shortly to be in front of the General Synod.

The Exeter Deaneries vote was positively favourable, with a small number opposing. Many feel the church should move forward.

Weddings are very popular in Ottery parish church and they like to think that it is not only the building but the pastoral care and preparation that make the day even more meaningful. Messy Church is on the second Monday of the month at 4pm. Children should be accompanied.

All Sorts, the new family service, is at 10:30am on the fourth Sunday of the month is proving popular with all ages. There are always activities for the young children then and also at our 9:30am Holy Communion service on the other Sundays.

Pulman's View from the churches

With NIGEL SPELLER

Ottery has also had the WATOTO Ugandan children's choir in the evening of Saturday and then they sang and danced again next day's 9:30 HC. They were truly remarkable... and such energy and joy.

Then it was the Friends' choral Evensong with Nick preaching – a sermon full of wisdom but light, and with some amusing stories to emphasise the point

SO, TO other events – local and beyond. The West Country is to retain the Palace at Wells for their Bishop, thus overturning an earlier decision.

Regular readers will recall the 'medical' or diagnosis carried out on this newspaper earlier in the year. Now the Canterbury Press has published one book, ideal for study or group discussion. It's available from www.churchtimes.co.uk with a discount for big orders.

Another new book covers recipes for those who rely on tinned or similar ingredients. The Bank Cook Book is free to download.

The Christian Resources Exhibition (CRE), well known in Devon, has announced that they are leaving Sandown Park Racecourse and moving instead to the ExCel Exhibition Centre in London. There is no news of changes in Devon.

Locally the Friends of the Minster Church at Axminster are raising funds with a competition for the best photos around Axminster (EX13) to create a 2015 calendar. The closing date for entries is May 31st and they will be displayed on June 21st and 22nd.

At Seaton Parish Church the builders have arrived to enlarge the facilities in the Church Hall; after that the Parish Church is on the list.

Just released – the Enthronement of the new Bishop of Exeter at the Cathedral has been announced for Saturday, July 5th at 2:30pm. More details later.

SEATON Tramway operations/engineering manager Lee Taylor grew up in Colyton before moving to Seaton and recently Axminster. He married Kayleigh last September and their first child was born last week. Lee started work at Seaton Tramway 13 years ago as an engineering apprentice after a successful work experience placement.

HOW did you come to work at Seaton Tramway?

Through friendship with the then chief engineer's girlfriend. I wasn't particularly the quickest guy at school and when it came to work experience I left it to the last minute again. It was Jacqui who suggested that James could offer me a week's placement and I enjoyed the week so much I applied to become engineering apprentice the following summer – that was nearly 13 years ago and the rest is history!

WHAT is your role at the tram?

A bit of everything, really. Although my job is mainly office-based now, it's still good to put on the overalls and go into the workshops every once in a while, and also out driving when it's busy. Mainly though, my time is taken up working out staff rosters, engineering cover, engineering projects and timetables. Keeps me busy!

WHAT do you enjoy about the job?

The people – they are great and although we take the job very seriously we still have fun. The views from my office as I write this are pretty spectacular too, so that's a bonus!

TELL us a little about the recent repairs to the tramline...

It was absolutely heartbreaking to discover the extent of the damage on February 15th. Ballast and the rail embankment had been completely washed away for a half-mile stretch; we'd never seen anything like it before and we were all completely lost for words.

But we had to pick ourselves up and get on with it, with a very work intensive six weeks recovering and/or replacing over 600 tonnes of material.

It's crazy to believe that it took a team of six men six weeks to repair the damaged nature caused in probably six minutes! Our team all pulled together and with help from Axminster Excavators the damage was put right well ahead of schedule and we were able to run the trams again for Easter.

If you could choose anyone, who would your dream tram passengers be?

Southampton Football Club, I'm a massive fan. It's not too far away, maybe they'd come?

60 seconds

WHAT do you like about the local area?

The quietness, the scenery, but despite being considered the countryside everything is still accessible and you don't need to travel too far or long to get to the nearest city and shops.

WHAT do you think it's missing?

We're not missing anything, but as a community we need to spread the message that the South West is open for business following the dreadful storms earlier in the year. We need to let others know what they are missing!

WHAT are your personal interests?

Football and beach fishing, although the chance to do either is far too rare!

WHAT would you do if you won the Lottery?

Pay off the mortgage, buy a nice car (I've always wanted a Ford Focus ST in orange, although if Kayleigh had her way we'd probably end up with a Mini. Mind you, with that much money we could probably buy both). The rest would be shared with family, friends and charities.

WHERE'S your dream holiday destination, and why?

America – New York most probably. I have always wanted to visit the States. Failing that, Norway for the great cod fishing!

Traditional Acupuncture

Acupuncture can improve & maintain health, energy and enhance a sense of well-being

ACCORDING to traditional Chinese philosophy, our health is dependent on the body's motivating energy (qi) moving in a smooth and balanced way through a series of channels beneath the skin.

Acupuncture can affect the quality of qi, your body's vital energy, by the insertion of very fine needles into specific points along these channels. This stimulates the body's healing response and restores natural balance. Treatment is aimed at the root cause of your condition as well as your main symptoms. This approach helps with resolving your problem and enhancing your feeling of well-being. You may notice other niggling problems resolve as your main health complaint improves.

The type of conditions that I mostly see in my clinics include the following: arthritis, back pain and sciatica, poor circulation, low energy levels, hormonal/menopausal symptoms, pregnancy management, fertility problems, weight management, and addictions such as smoking. However, you don't have to be ill in the conventional sense to benefit from acupuncture, sometimes people come to see me because they are feeling low, unwell in themselves, or maybe not sleeping as well as they would like to.

Professional Acupuncturists spend at least 3 years training at degree level to become an Acupuncturist. We are then entitled to join the British Acupuncture Council and to use the letters Lic.Ac., B.Ac.C after our names. We also have public liability and professional indemnity insurance. Many of us have also studied at post-graduate level and are constantly updating our skills and experience.

So, why not give me a ring and see if I can help.

Michelle Hague Behavioral Hypnotherapy

Helping to cope with stress and anxiety

ANXIETY and stress can often create symptoms that in time cause illness. Anxiety is known to produce noticeable physical symptoms, such as rapid heartbeat, high blood pressure, and digestive problems. In General Anxiety Disorder (GAD) and Social Anxiety Disorder (SAD) the symptoms become so severe that normal daily functioning. Clinical Hypnosis and Cognitive behavioural therapy (CBT) are common treatments for stress and anxiety disorders and can be very effective in changing thinking and responses.

In contrast with CBT and in many ways very similar to Hypnosis Mindfulness and mindfulness-based therapies (MBTs) seek to change the relationship between the anxious person and his or her thoughts.

In mindfulness, the person focuses on the bodily sensations that arise when anxious. Instead of avoiding or withdrawing from these feelings, the focus is on remaining present and fully experiences the symptoms of anxiety. Instead of avoiding distressing thoughts, opening up to them in an effort to accept that they are not literally true, just ideas and imaginings often related to the past or future events but no less unreal in the present.

By remaining present in the moment aware of the breath and the body, individuals can learn that the anxiety they experience is merely a reaction to thoughts. By positively responding to threatening events instead of being reactive they can overcome an mistaken stress fight-or-flight response, and take control of their life.

Relationships: power and control

MUCH, if not all the conflict in the world is about power and control over others, whether physical, religious or financial.

When we hear of shocking events and situations, it is hard to relate this to the skirmishes we have in our own relationships. It is, however, this balance of power – how much we need to control our partner to fit in with our view of what a relationship should be and how they should behave, which can change the peace and harmony we desire, into either a cold or full out war.

Without being able to negotiate and compromise their difficulties, couples can end up in either a power struggle or one succumbing to the demands of the other to maintain peace - neither of which is a happy situation and often ends in the collapse of relationships.

Counselling can offer an alternative, unbiased perspective, and the means to resuming peaceful negotiations and restoring harmony.

About me

I am a qualified counsellor with over 19 years of experience in offering professional guidance to couples and individuals wanting help or support with either relationship or personal issues, including loss and bereavement.

Honiton Garden Centre

Now is the time to sort your pots, baskets and bedding plants

Spring still deciding whether to finally settle down or not, teasing us with some glorious warm sunny days and then reminding us it still "that time of year", now definitely is the time to brighten up your pots and baskets, adding some well-deserved colour to the patio or garden.

The great advantage of patio and bedding plants is their instant impact in the garden, the long flowering season and the huge quantity of blooms that they will provide. From trailing surfinia's to gorgeous marigolds, bedding plants offer the greatest flexibility of the garden plant kingdom and with a little tender loving care throughout the season will add a superb display for many months to any garden, whether small or large.

This year the geraniums are just amazing, with a wide range of vibrant coloured flowers. With some variety's offering variegated foliage, you can still get added colour even after the flowering has finished.

Don't forget, it's not too late to fill any gaps you may have in the borders with hardy perennials which will return year after year. There are perennials to suit all aspects and soils, from ground cover to high plants for back of the border, so you can be sure to find a solution to suit any gardening requirements.

With the late spring and the summer season to look forward to, and hopefully giving us some settled fine days and evenings, it's worth putting the effort in now to create that perfect piece of England in our own back gardens. We just can't wait and look forward to welcoming you at Honiton Garden Centre.

N.C. Jacks Landscaping

N.C. Jacks Landscaping is a small, family-run business that has been working in the East Devon and West Dorset area since 1986. The business aims to provide a high quality service designed to meet your individual requirements. This may be a design to completion project or an individual job such as a patio or fencing.

Whether you are looking for a patio area to relax and enjoy your garden from, or just a path way to access another area, paving is the ideal choice. Hard wearing and permanent the style of finishes is extensive.

Dry Stone provides a very strong and flexible wall. Traditionally built with natural stone with no mortar or concrete and simply back filled with soil it works well in a cottage garden where a more traditional look is required. It provides an attractive base for plants to grow through.

We carry out a full range of fencing services from traditional panels, close boarding and post and rail, as well as trellis and gates.

Decking provides a more contemporary hard garden surface. Softer than paving it can be used on its own or as a complement to hard paving. It is well suited to level uneven awkward sites. Balustrading and hand rails give a practical and attractive finish.

Sherborne Turf

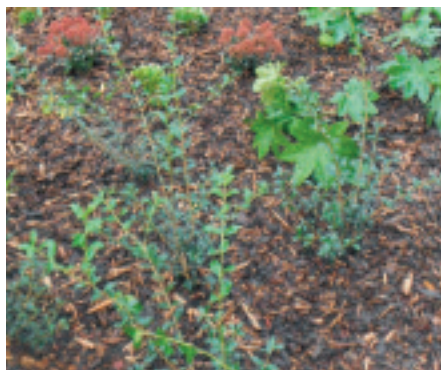

ESTABLISHED for over 40 years, Sherborne Turf is situated in the picturesque village of Trent in Dorset, where we have around 150 acres of quality farmland dedicated to the production of our Trent Turf. Grown without netting, we use a blend of grasses developed over the years that will knit together to form a firm base, and leave our turf in the ground for 18 months before harvesting. It is then freshly cut to order and delivered using our own vehicles. While the trade standard for delivery is 'kerb-side', we realise that this is not always practical for our customers, and so our experienced drivers always endeavour to place the items as conveniently as possible for you, a service which is often not provided by other companies.

Although our core business is turf production, we also supply a full range of locally sourced topsoil, compost, bark and mulch. Other essential garden items include fertiliser, irrigation equipment, landscape accessories, and a full range of seed mixes to grow wildflowers and grasses for companion sowing.

Our delivery vehicles include an artic with removable forklift, a 6-wheel rigid crane lorry, and a pick up truck with trailer. We also have access to a wide range of vehicles for bulk loads of topsoil, compost and bark.

All of the staff here at Sherborne Turf have experience of the products we sell, and are happy to discuss any aspect of your garden project. Our website www.sherborneturf.co.uk contains detailed information, practical advice, and even has an interactive calculator. We are also on Facebook and Twitter, or why not give us a call on 01935 850388.

DEVENISH PITT RIDING SCHOOL

THE Devenish Pitt Riding School since has been run the early 1960s.

The school offers hacks and lessons from a friendly team of very experienced instructors, and stress the safety of the riders and horses. The school has a superb family of reliable horses and ponies to suit all sizes and abilities of riders.

Lessons are given in the indoor school or outside menage. Novice riders can learn how to merely sit and control the horse, or the more experienced rider can ride a dressage test or jump a course of show jumps. Group or private lessons can be arranged. Devenish Pitt takes children from as young as 4 years old for half hour lessons, and they have no maximum age for adults to start learning! Regular riders can join the British Horse Society Riding Proficiency Scheme working towards different levels and are awarded certificates and badges for their skills accomplished. This eventually leads riders to the BHS examinations.

Hacks are available in the beautiful countryside. Devenish Pitt Riding School has numerous routes over their 260-acre farm and common, local bridleways and forestry. The school can offer quiet family rides in the valley or faster rides across the fields and common. For novice riders and families, the school suggests an hour's ride to include part lesson and part hack, all fully supervised. In this way everyone will feel confident to venture out to enjoy the wonderful countryside on horse-back.

Children's Half Days at the Stables

Children from 8 years old can enjoy a fully supervised morning or afternoon. They have an hours lesson/hack and learn about pony care and management. Sessions run from 9am-12.30pm and 1.30-5pm.

The school also offers instruction on your own horses; lunge lessons; riding vouchers, an ideal gift; birthday party rides; and a riding equipment shop.

The Riding School is normally closed on Mondays and Tuesdays but open from Wednesday to Sunday inclusive, and Tuesdays during the school summer holidays, depending on demand.

Celebrating 12 years at The Heathfield Inn

SET in the charming town of Honiton, in the heart of Devon, yet a short drive from the coast, lies the beautifully thatched Heathfield Inn, a traditionally Devon run house dating from the 16th century and previously an old farmhouse known as 'The Barn'.

The non-smoking restaurant seats 50 and offers an excellent choice of mouth-watering modern European dishes and local specialties from the A La Carte menu. A wide range of wines, real ales and spirits are available from the large well stocked bar, which runs adjacent to the drinking, informal dining and comfy lounge areas of the traditional bar.

The Heathfield Inn is celebrating 12 Years during June, and will be running a special offer throughout the month; when you buy a main meal, you'll get the second one half price on any meal from the main menu. Other offers available at the Ridgeway include Sunday Carvers for £8.25, and on Tuesdays and Thursdays get any 2 rump, ribeye or gammon steaks for £17.50.

For more details call 01404 45321 or visit www.heathfieldinn.co.uk

Old Inn Kilmington's 6th Annual Beer Festival

THIS year the Old Inn at Kilmington is holding its beer festival on Saturday, May 31st. This popular event will see the pub host its celebrated mix of beers, a great Barbeque and music from three local acts. The gate will be open from 5.00pm with music and food starting a little later.

The event is on for just the one night as Landlord Duncan Colvin explained: "We like to have one amazing night rather than spread the event over a weekend. The three musical acts are very different and whilst the families will enjoy the early evening entertainment, we finish with a bang thanks to Cross Wired".

There's plenty for the beer enthusiast. The Old Inn was voted East Devon CAMRA pub of spring last year and beers will include a range from Devon and the West Country, but also a beer from Orkney.

Food this year will be provided by the pubs own kitchen team in the form of a 'Best of the West BBQ'. As well as their own burgers, there will be fish and game skewers to tempt the more adventurous.

This Beer Festival has always marked the start of a great summer of events locally and is not to be missed. For more details on the beers available or the BBQ menu check out the website www.oldinnkilmington.co.uk or give the pub a call on 01297 32096

Affordable housing for local people

THIS week official figures from the Office for National Statistics (ONS) reported that UK house prices had risen by 8% in the year to the end of March 2014. The country is in the midst of a housing shortage that is continuing to push house prices up to the point where an entire generation is struggling to afford a home of their own. One organisation acting to ensure that there are homes available for those priced out of the property market is Somerset based affordable housing provider, Yarlington Housing Group, who will be providing 36 new affordable homes on the outskirts of Axminster for local people.

This exciting new housing development is Yarlington's first own development in East Devon and they are working in partnership with Brookvale Homes to deliver the properties. Work on the homes started in March 2014 and is due for completion by the end of 2014. The development will feature a mixture of 1 and 2 bed flats, 2 and 3 bedroom homes and there will be properties available for affordable rent or shared ownership (part buy / part rent), increasing the opportunities of home ownership for families on normal incomes.

As part of the planning conditions, it was agreed that these properties will go to people who have a local connection.

Lisa Jenkins, Lettings Officer for the site said 'Anyone interested in applying for the homes must have a connection to East Devon and we stipulate that for those thinking about applying they must meet one of the following; have lived in East Devon for at least 3 out of 5 years, been permanently employed for a minimum of 3 years in the district or have immediate family (parents / siblings) that have lived in East Devon for at least 3 out of 5 years. All the properties will be advertised on Devon Home Choice.'

Yarlington's Executive Director of Growth and Investment, Barbara Richardson, concluded, 'This development provides homes for local people that they can afford. However, not only do Yarlington provide homes but we invest in people and neighbourhoods ensuring that those communities in which we work thrive – we are in it for the long term and look forward to helping establish a successful community at the Axminster site. Our mission is 'Building Communities' and all our staff work closely and effectively with our residents and communities to achieve this.'

There is an open day Housing Event on the 4th June from 12.30pm – 6.30pm at Millwey Community Centre, where you will be able to find out more about the scheme, see the plans and talk to the team about how to bid for one of the properties.

For more details call 01935 404500 and ask to speak to Lisa Jenkins or visit www.yhg.co.uk.

SPOTLIGHT ON MY SERVICEWestcountry
Chimney Services

Westcountry Chimney Services are a professional company based in East Devon providing chimney services throughout Devon, Dorset and parts of Somerset.

Trained by the Guild of Master Chimney Sweeps, proving commitment to the chimney industry and demonstrating this commitment and professionalism by taking the time to pass the Guilds assessment.

We are fully insured and will supply a certificate for every flue swept.

Advice will be given on areas such as correct ventilation as this will help to improve the efficiency and safety of the appliance.

It is extremely important to regularly sweep your chimney flue to prevent soot build up within the flue which can cause a chimney fire.

Soot build up can cause damage to the flue, not only reducing the efficiency of the appliance but can cause dangerous fumes such as carbon monoxide leaking into your home thus why regular sweeping is imperative.

Included in our service:

An inspection of the flue will take place to check condition and see if there is any obstruction or damage to the flue, then

The appliance will be checked for any damage such as cracks and corrosion of the seals.

The flue will be swept using the correct equipment and all fall out will be cleaned up and removed.

Finally a smoke test will be done to confirm the appliance is drawing efficiently.

All prevention will be taken to stop any soot getting on to carpets or furnishings by the use of dust sheets, protective foot ware and a commercial vacuum. Westcountry services do a wide range of chimney flues including woodburners, range cookers, Agas and inglenooks.

The New Lexus NX Lexus enters the Premium Crossover Market

▲ NX 300h F Sport

THE NX marks Lexus's debut in the premium mid-size crossover market. It displays an edgy, contemporary design that's aimed at attracting new customers, notably urban people with active lifestyles.

Two powertrains will be offered in the UK: a highly efficient hybrid system in the NX 300h; and a new Lexus-developed 2.0-litre petrol turbo engine in the NX 200t. Both all-wheel and front-wheel drive versions will be available within the range.

The NX 300h will debut in the UK in October 2014, in all-wheel and front-wheel drive versions; the NX 200t will follow in March 2015, exclusively as an F Sport AWD model.

Innovative on-board technology will be available, including a wireless charging tray for easy charging of mobile phones and other devices and the first application of a new Lexus Remote Touch Interface with a touchpad control. Further features include a new Panoramic View Monitor, a comprehensive multi-information display (incorporating for the first time a G-sensor and boost meter), head-up display, blind spot monitor and Rear Cross Traffic Alert.

The NX 300h and 200t F Sport versions display a bolder design, with specific features such as an individual treatment of the spindle grille, a lower front bumper, dedicated wheel design, black-finished door mirror housings, dedicated interior colours and trims and sports seats. Beyond the styling these versions of NX will benefit from performance dampers.

Takeaki Kato, the NX Chief Engineer, said: "The NX is a premium crossover, combining performance, numerous on-board technologies and alluring design.

"Luxury is epitomised by small but important details, as can be witnessed in the attention to detail in areas such as the feel of the switchgear, the arrangement of the courtesy lights, the metallic finishes for the wheels and other innovations that will set the standards for future Lexus models.

"Luxury touches apart, the NX was designed both to complement daily life and support active lifestyles at the weekend."

Exterior design

The NX has been substantially influenced by the LF-NX concept and has been designed to express a sense of agility not usually associated with an SUV, as well as the practical quality required for driving around town.

The flared front and rear elements are fused to a diamond-shaped body which has its starting point in the spindle grille. The flared arches house 17 or 18-inch wheels and contribute to the car's crouching, muscular stance. Lexus's distinctive design language is also expressed in the innovative LED headlamps and daytime running lights.

The side profile shows the peak of the roofline is set towards the back of the vehicle, which translates into ample headroom for those sitting in the rear, while creating a tight silhouette.

Details include an innovative door mirror design and a door handle mechanism with a concealed key barrel and integrated lighting, features which enhance the overall premium look by creating a smooth finish along the side of the car.

The rear is punctuated by Lexus's L-shape combination lamps, fitted with seamless LED lighting. The bodywork design echoes the spindle grille treatment at the front.

Interior design

Lexus's ambition for the NX's cabin was to produce a design that combines the structural beauty of a high-performance vehicle with materials and textures that express premium quality and functionality.

The car's SUV strengths are expressed in details such as a thick-rimmed steering wheel, a central silver frame embedded in the instrument panel and robust knee pads for driver and front passenger. Contrasting textures around the cabin and the use of a quilted seat upholstery pattern reference the NX's status as a crossover vehicle.

The NX continues the development of Lexus's display and operation zone dashboard design concept and provides the driver with easy, intuitive command of its advanced technology features using new and improved HMI controls.

Lexus has also focused on interior space and seating, ensuring ample overall headroom and a generous front-to-rear couple distance. The NX also has the longest luggage area load length in its class.

DS3 & DS3 Cabrio: Now Even More Irresistible

ALL DS 3 and DS 3 Cabrio DSport versions from July production will feature state-of-the-art headlights inspired by two innovative concept cars – Numéro 9 and Wild Rubis. Combining LED and Xenon modules with new sequential indicators, the new headlights represent a world first for the brand.

The all-new headlights offer exceptional lighting performance when used in dipped or high-beam mode, with the LED and Xenon modules combining to provide enhanced visibility and driver comfort at night.

Efficiency, too, is improved; energy consumption is 35% lower in dipped mode and 75% lower in high-beam mode, while the LEDs last up to 20 times longer than halogen lights, with an impressive standard lifetime of 20,000 hours.

Already strong on visual appeal, DS 3 and DS 3 Cabrio's new headlights are now more striking than ever. The LED modules have been arranged to provide a distinctive signature and the sequential indicators – a class exclusive – add further appeal.

Both DS 3 and DS 3 Cabrio retain their distinctive 3D-effect LED rear lights, with a chrome finished DS logo in a black embossed DS pattern setting. The existing LED daytime running lights compliment the new lighting signature at the front of both cars.

NEW POSSIBILITIES FOR PERSONALISATION
To further enhance the allure of DS 3 and DS 3 Cabrio, and to ensure that they remain unique and desirable, the brand is also introducing a new range of personalisation options.

Also from July production, selected versions of DS 3 will be available with the choice of a laser-etched dashboard strip and a screen-printed rear window. Colour options have also been enhanced, with the addition of Pearl White as a body colour on DS 3 and DS 3 Cabrio. Belle-Île Blue is also introduced on DS 3 Cabrio. DS 3 gains the availability of new visually striking 17" diamond-cut alloy wheels on selected models.

NEW ENGINES: PERFORMANCE & EFFICIENCY COMBINED

Already acknowledged for their perfect balance between performance and comfort, DS 3 and DS 3 Cabrio will also gain new Euro 6 compliant diesel and petrol engines.

Two new Euro 6 diesel engines will become available; the BlueHDi 120 and BlueHDi 100. Both engines will offer more power and lower emissions. Thanks to the use of leading-edge technology, including SCR (Selective Catalytic Reduction), NOx emissions are cut by 90%, while CO2 emissions are cut by up to 4%.

The BlueHDi 100 will be class-leading in terms of emissions, producing just 79g/km of CO2. The BlueHDi 120 emits 94g/km of CO2. As well as reducing emissions and delivering greater levels of performance, both engines improve fuel efficiency, boasting figures of up to 94mpg for the BlueHDi 100 and up to 78mpg for the BlueHDi 120 version.

A new petrol engine also becomes available in some markets (to be confirmed for the UK) in the form of a Euro 6-compliant PureTech e-VTi 82 ETG. Delivering 69mpg over a combined cycle and producing just 95g/km of CO2, this engine is available with the automated manual ETG (Efficient Tronic Gearbox). The 5-speed 'box features a creep function and optimised software mapping, which adjusts power delivery for smoother starts and a better driving experience.

HIGH-TECH EQUIPMENT, FOR A SAFER, MORE COMFORTABLE DRIVE

DS 3 and DS 3 Cabrio are already recognised for having the largest boot in their class and five 'real' seats – they can now boast new features to improve the city driving experience.

Selected versions will be available in the UK (from July production) with 'Active City Brake'. This is an automatic braking system that helps to prevent low-speed collisions. This is achieved thanks to a short-range radar, mounted at the top of the windscreen, which identifies slow moving or stationary vehicles on the road ahead. If the vehicle is driving at speeds lower than 20mph, the sensor activates the brakes to avoid a potential collision.

Day-to-day manoeuvres are made easier too, with the addition of an optional reversing camera on both DS 3 and DS 3 Cabrio. This camera is automatically linked to the eMyWay navigation system for ease of use.

East Devon football round-up

Hayes strike clinches Challenge cup final Four Saints see red in semi • Cup glory for Axes

Golesworthy cup final

AXMOUTH UNITED 2 FENITON RES 1
Tuesday, May 20th
at Ottery St Mary

AXMOUTH United made a great start and dominated right from the early exchanges, playing some fluent football which created several early chances.

They opened the scoring on eight minutes when Jamie Hughes headed home a Scott Dyer corner at the near post.

More pressure saw Axmouth double the lead 10 minutes later when Man-of-the-Match George Harwood flighted a perfect angled pass which was met on the volley by Christian Burridge to thunder home from the corner of the box.

Axmouth continued to dominate but the Feniton keeper was in inspired form making several flying stops to prevent Burridge and Reece Hales strikes and keep his side in the match at the half-time.

From the re-start Feniton upped their game and began to get a foothold.

They were soon rewarded when a half clearance was met with a drive from the edge of the box from Louie Dyer which Ax gloveman Bradley Cross got his hand to but couldn't prevent finding the net to make it 2-1 in the 55th minute.

The goal certainly lifted Fenny as they mounted more pressure.

Axmouth failed to perform to the same standard as their first 45 minutes however, they showed great spirit to see the game out and indeed thought they scored a third with 10 minutes left only for a late flag to be raised for offside.

A final flurry from Feniton saw a late corner and free-kick which was well saved again by Cross, ensuring Axmouth were victorious at the whistle.

Ax manager Laurie Forino said: "I'm really proud of the lads, yet again they have showed what a fantastic team spirit and togetherness we have at the club."

"We played some wonderful football, especially in the first-half when we could have been out of sight if their keeper hadn't been in such great form."

"A great deal of credit though to Feniton for coming back at us in the second-half and make a real game of it for the watching crowd - but I felt we were deserved winners in the end."

aiming for cup double

"It's a great way to end a long season and could get better yet with the Carlisle cup final still to come - although we expect another real battle with Honiton Town Reserves next Tuesday (tonight) and hope our supporters will be out in force again."

ROUND-UP

EXWICK VILLA hopes of lifting the Firewatch Devon Senior cup were blown away by DARTMOUTH UNITED at Coach Road inside the first 30 minutes on Friday.

The Villa who had a great chance to score in the first minute then conceded three times, and went four down after the break to a Darts side which really took its chances well.

The match then seemed to be fizzling out but Exwick got two goals back from their star man Jamie Mudge and in a tense finish it was Dartmouth who were holding on for a victory which overall they merited.

On chances Exwick probably had as many but they could not have played much better in a final which prior to kick off was again in doubt because of the weather.

FENITON captured the East Devon Senior cup for the first time in their history when they won an epic final at Crediton 5-4 on penalties against ST MARTINS.

The final between last years Premier champions and this years title winners was an energy sapping contest, especially after Saints had Andrew Brooks sent off for the third time this season against the same opponents, and Feniton manager Mark Kingdon red carded at the same time.

Some quality football followed by both teams but neither could find the net, but the pair then produced some outstanding penalties before one of Saints spot kicks rebounded off the post.

Man of the match was St Martins keeper Lee Bailey.

Outside of the County trophies the East Devon cup is the oldest competition in existence with the first winners being the RFA Battery in 1904.

SIDBURY UNITED retained the Grandisdon cup when they beat neighbours SIDMOUTH TOWN 1-0.

The only goal was a first half Adam Connott penalty, but Sidmouth then wasted their best chance when substitute Arnold Onaki rolled a penalty past the post.

A minute's silence was held before the final for Sidmouth player Kevin Dorman who was tragically killed in a tractor accident a few days earlier.

Kevin was also a former Sidbury player.

SEATON TOWN won the Seaton Challenge Cup 1-0 against their greatest rivals BEER ALBION with the only goal coming from Jacob Hayes.

The semi final a few days earlier saw Seaton beat COMBE ST NICHOLAS of the Somerset Senior League 3-2 after extra time, but Combe had four players sent off. Seaton scorers in the semi were Peter Knox 2 and Martyn Hancock.

The final league game of the season saw Division Two champions DOLPHIN UNITED beat bottom of the table PINHOE 5-1 at Crediton. Liam Mallett with a hat-trick, Ben Harris and Ashley Dart scored for Dolphin.

The season will wind up tonight (Tuesday) with two more cup finals. In the Morrison Bell final at Ottery St Mary (7.30pm) FENITON face UPOTTERY who are giving away three Divisions but are expected to give the Premier team a good contest.

The Carlisle cup final between AXMOUTH UNITED and HONITON TOWN RESERVES kicks off an hour earlier at Seaton 6.30pm, with Axmouth seeking a cup double.

Congratulations also go to Feniton ladies who beat Plympton 4-1 on Wednesday evening to lift the County League Cup at Liverton.

◆ Seaton Town FC AGM will be held in the club's Colyford Road Clubhouse on Wednesday, June 18th, 7.15 start.

The Greens require a new Chairman and Secretary for next season and all those interested in helping to take the Club forward will be most welcome at the meeting.

◆ The League holds its Presentation night on Thursday at Padbrook, Culmpton, following the return of League Secretary Chris Davey who has been looking after the England International "C" team in their travels in Europe.

Because of this "burden", Mr Davey has had to delay the final League Management meeting until next Monday, June 2nd when they meet at their sponsors Fresha on the Sowton Industrial Estate.

Medal success in Switzerland for Honiton Gymnasts

■ SWISS PRECISION: The Honiton Gymnastics Club squad which performed so well in Switzerland recently.

GYMNASTS from Honiton Gymnastics Club further boosted the club's international reputation last week when they competed at the Swiss Acro Cup in Winterthur, Switzerland.

The 16 talented acrobatics, aged eight to 18, competed against gymnasts from countries including Poland, Belarus, Germany, Hungary and Switzerland, putting in fine performances and bringing back two golds and one bronze medal.

Gold medals were won by the junior mixed pair of Adam Fullick and Megan Jones, who finished almost two marks ahead of the Polish partnership in second, and Youth men's pair Jamie Jeffrey and Matthew Bevis, who recorded their highest score to date with a 27.50 out of 30.

"It was an excellent experience for all of our gymnasts, many of whom were competing in their first international," said James Reddy, high performance coach at Honiton Gymnastics Club, "and it was great to come back from Switzerland with medals too."

"Adam and Megan improved hugely on their performance at the British Championships in March, and Jamie and Matt stepped up a gear after falling just short of making the national finals earlier in the year, so it was great to see them compete with clean routines and show some of Europe's best what Honiton gymnasts are capable of."

Honiton's bronze medal was clinched by the junior women's trio of Charlotte Bevis, Kaisha Dessalines-Wright & Sammy Britten.

The feat was made even more notable as Charlotte had only been working with the girls for three weeks and not only had to speedily learn the complex moves but also had to juggle fit in training with mixed partner Josh Jackson, who she finished in fourth place with in the junior mixed pairs event.

dynamism

"One thing that really stood out about Honiton's performers in Switzerland was their presence on the floor and the dynamism in our performances," added James.

In addition to the medal winners, Josh Jackson and Charlotte Bevis took fourth place in the junior mixed pairs event; Valentine Tutcher and Catie Lee were ninth in the Youth women's pairs; Emma Saunders, Katie Studley, Chloe-Mae Outram were 11th in the Youth women's groups; and Megan Quick and Scarlett Livingstone were fourth in the Swiss National Class pairs event.

"Catie and Megan are just eight years old," said James, "They're the youngest gymnasts we've ever taken to an international competition, but they were both unfazed by the occasion and competed remarkably well."

HONITON RC with Judy Davey

On Sunday, May 18th Honiton runners travelled to Cotley to take part in the inaugural running of Chard Running Club's Wambrook Waddle.

This was a challenging multi-terrain 10 run around the fields and woods with a hill or two for added interest as well as plenty of stinging nettles.

Ben Stone was first back for Honiton coming 3rd overall in 46 minutes 11 seconds and winning his age category. He was followed by Rod Inglis who once again had an amazing run on the back of last week's efforts at Beer.

For the second race running he was followed by Steve Davey. Rod was 11th in 52:30 and Steve 14th in 54:36.

Next back was Bruce Strawbridge who on his comeback race following injury was flabbergasted to find out he had won a trophy for his age category. He came 16th in 56:15.

Hot on his heels as he had been for most of the race was Vernon Gillard who finished 18th in 56:27 and only one place behind Vernon was Judy Davey who finished in 57:25 after following both Bruce and Vernon for the entire race.

FENITON with Roger Smith

IN the men's over 60s league the B team's recent success was halted by a 29-32 away defeat at MORCHARD BISHOP. The winning rink was T Young, C Maynard & D Evans.

The A team's poor start to the season continued with a 31-37 defeat away at HEAVITREE C. The winning rink was E Cox, A Smith & R Smith 18-12.

The ladies maintained their good start in NBTL defeating Phear Park 47-18. The winning rinks were; G Blackmore, J Evans & R Veitch 27-5 and Smith, A Pritchard & G North 20-13.

Meanwhile, the mixed team's two matches against HONITON and TIVERTON BOROUGH both fell victim to the weather.

On Wednesday, Seaton Over 60s B entertained last year's Division Six rivals CHARDSTOCK 'A', and had an impressive 40-27 win. The match went to the last end with Seaton taking five shots to secure the full eight points. Top rink was Norman Stone, Doug Hislop & Jeremy Allison.

A close encounter at Seaton against a spirited ST THOMAS "A" side ended with Seaton "A" hanging on to their

On Friday the triple of Maria Johnson, Linda Stone & Pat Whitworth played a 3rd round County Competition game against a triple from HONITON in torrential rain.

The final result was 23-9 after 14 ends, when Honiton decided to call it a day after they dropped a nine (a hot shot) on one end and then a further three.

The Seaton team are now in the final 16 and will be playing a triple from Plymouth at Exonia at the beginning of July.

The week ended with the first round of the ladies Championship on Saturday.

Ritchie, is a 55-year-old risk management consultant from Honiton. He plays off a handicap of 11. Cave, 48, has been a professional at Honiton for 25 years.

AXE CLIFF with Helen Kenworthy

LAST Friday last 26 Seniors took part in the annual four-somes match for the Brian Abbott Shield which was presented by his widow.

Although conditions were favourable, apart from the winners, most teams found scoring difficult.

The runaway winners with 33 points were Bill Polley & Dave Weston. Runners-up with 29 points were Gilbert Cox & John Pugh while three teams recorded scores of 27 points. On countback, 3rd place went to Tony Strong & Peter Knighting with Mick Toms & Hugh Willis and Gerald Turner & Tony Horton, the teams to miss out.

In a recent Seniors two ball better ball event at Sidmouth Gilbert Cox and Captain Rob Grove won Third prize.

On Sunday the Mens Section played their Adams Cup which is a Bogey Format.

Result: 1st (on the back 9) Chris Glover level, 2nd Steve Reed level and 3rd Mike Wickins minus one. There were four 2s; Paul Clode, Gavin Walker, Steve Reed and Alex Palmer.

Last Wednesday the Ladies played the Killard Levy which is a foursomes format. Result: 1st pair Sandra Walker & Helen Gaudi, 2nd Margaret Kenchington & Barbara Cummings and 3rd Di Rogers & Pat Ayshford.

HONITON with Andy Wagner

Hellier, Steele Perkins Trophies

THIS week's two divisional trophies were both played as Bogey Competitions.

The end result of each hole is either a win to you (or a plus), a loss to the hole (or a minus) or a straight halve (or a zero). Richard Beard battled valiantly to finish one stroke behind par or 'minus 1' on his card.

This he duly signed, little noticing that his marker had failed to put his gross score in the first column, thus disqualifying his card!

As these trophies are played for over two weeks he was knocked out of the whole competition.

Early Leaders in Division One were Ben Phillips with +4, Rob Willey +1 and Richard Townsend also +1. Div2 is lead by Paul Borkowski +3, Jonno Barker +1 and Julian Netherway 0.

Tuesday mixed

THE Chivers Goblets were played for again this week. The Format is Greensome Stableford - drawn for playing partners and the winners this month with 39pts were Hilda Hoepelman playing with Bob Barnes.

In 2nd place with 37pts were Di Wall & Cyril Dann. On 34pts were 3rd and 4th places with Lesley Oxenham & Allan Seager taking 3rd place on c/b from Elizabeth Wood & Den Calver.

Ladies Section

PLAYING 36 holes in one day can be gruelling, but fine summer weather eased the pain for those ladies taking part in the Jubilee Cup on Wednesday, and Elizabeth Ward was certainly on form as she won this year's Cup with an impressive total score of 74 stableford points (38 and 36).

Runner-up was Janet Hughes with a total score of 65 stableford points (25 and 40).

The High 6 Trophy for 30-36 handicaps was snapped up by Di Wall with 28 points, ahead of Margaret Jory runner-up with 27 points (c/b).

In the normal stableford competition, the Silver Division winner was Elizabeth Ward (38 points) with Anne Davies in 2nd place with 36 points.

Bronze 1 Division winner was Linda Blundell with 38 points, followed by Olive Pope in 2nd on 33 points, and Jan Dickinson in 3rd with 31 points.

The nine-hole qualifying stableford was won by Babs Knight with 16 points.

Meanwhile, Past Lady Captain, Sue Ritchie, flew the Club flag at the Devon Lady Captains Golf Society Spring Meeting at Teignmouth on 15th May as she swept home with top prize. The Golf Society Cup, together with the Armada Plate which was presented for the first time to commemorate the 50th anniversary of the Golf Society.

Honour for local instructor

GILES Richards, who runs the Matt Fiddes martial arts schools in Seaton, received the 'Up and Coming fighter's award at the recent Martial Arts Hall of Fame ceremony.

Richards said: "It's an amazing honour to even be invited to these awards as they are by far the most prestigious awards I could receive in my line of work."

"I was blown away when I heard I had won."

Richards is now preparing for an English title fight in Weston-super-Mare on June 7th.

"I can't wait for this one. I am going into this fight fitter and stronger than ever and am going for the stoppage victory over my opponent. "Just a few months ago I won the area title, so this is a step up in class but I know what I am capable of and will do all I can to get the win."

Richards' classes are held every Wednesday for all ages and abilities from three years and upwards at Seaton primary school.

Local triathletes make promising start to season

THE triathlon season got into full swing last weekend and it was time for a number of N1 Tri Club athletes to put their winter training programmes to the test.

Exeter Tri club stage the EXE VALLEY TRIATHLON at Tiverton. The course is hilly and demanding but the race itself well organised.

Husband and wife duo Luke and Rae Owen had a battle of their own with Luke just edging it by around 90 seconds.

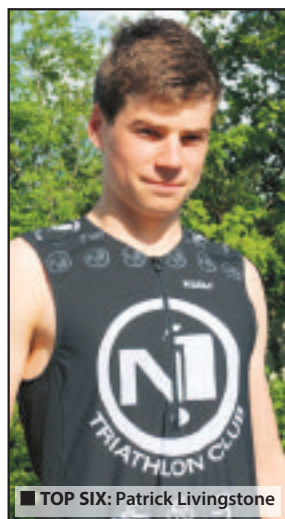

Meanwhile, Ceri Henkus was delighted to knock a whopping 11 minutes off her time of last year.

For Jacquia Rogers it was a debut race and she experienced the disappointment that all triathletes face in their racing careers - a puncture - but in Jacquia's case it was not one but two!

Jacquia was therefore delighted to finish and demonstrated her resolve to improve by immediately entering for another event.

Jane Down took on the Hilly TAUNTON DEANE race in the heat that all competitors had to overcome on the day.

Over to Bath and the DB max organised race using the Olympic sized pool at Bath University.

TOP SIX: Patrick Livingstone

This race attracts many top athletes and at least two GB vests were on show.

Jess Tubbs recorded the 3rd fastest womens swim split on the day. Tony Spencer, was in his first ever triathlon and did extremely well.

Tony has impressed the club with his cycling prowess. His swimming is improving week by week and the Ironman race he has on his radar looks ever more likely.

But the star performance of the day was by Colyton Grammar School student Patrick Livingstone.

Patrick, who still has two years of junior competition left open to him, stormed the senior race coming home in a magnificent 6th place overall.

He swam the 400 metres in 5 minutes 53 completed, the bike course in 41 minutes 11 seconds and his run time for 5km was 3rd fastest on the day at 18 minutes 32 seconds.

It is worth adding that Patrick's transitions could have been improved upon - to such an extent that an even median performance would have seen him close to an overall podium spot.

Worthy cup winners!

WINNERS: Axmouth United footballers celebrate after beating Feniton Reserves 2-1 at Ottery St Mary FC on Tuesday evening to lift the Goleworthy cup for the first time in the club's history. More inside on page 53
